ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cheating, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty will result in a failing grade in the course. See District Policy 3100 in your student handbook.

SPECIAL NOTES

1. ALWAYS trimmed nails required.
2. Keep records of all work, including test cores, at least until you receive your grade from the admissions office following completion of the course.
3. If you miss class for any reasons, you are responsible for missed work, turning in assignments on time, and finding out what happened. I will NOT redo lectures during office hours. PLEASE DON'T COME TO OR EMAIL ME TO ASK "I WAS ABSENT YESTERDAY. WHAT DID I MISS?" Get together with fellow students to share lecture notes. Do the assignment and then come to me and ask specific questions like "I have difficulty with measure 5 on page 10."
4. Turn off any electronic devices such as cell phones, pagers, Ipods, or PDAs in class; under no circumstances should you call, answer or use any of them in class.
5. In the process of teaching piano, there will be some physical contact as I correct your technique, hand position and posture; if you are uncomfortable with this, please speak to me in the first week of each semester.
6. No animals will not be allowed in class.
7. Students with disabilities who may need academic accommodations should see me and contact DSPS (Disability Support Programs and Services) within the first week of each semester so that reasonable accommodations may be implemented as soon as possible.
